

BJP Assembly election manifesto committee to seek suggestions from society

Jammu, Aug. 04 : Assembly election manifesto committee of J&K BJP will seek suggestions from various sections of society to frame its manifesto for the upcoming elections, this was decided in a high level meeting held by the party.

Union Minister Kishan Reddy Gangapuram (BJP's Assembly Election Incharge-J&K) addressed the BJP's Assembly Election Manifesto Committee meeting at Party headquarters, Jammu. Ravinder Raina, President, J&K BJP chaired the meeting, which was attended by Manifesto Committee Chairman Dr. Nirmal Singh, and Committee members, BJP National Secretary Dr. Narinder Singh, J&K BJP General Secretary (organization) Ashok Koul, J&K BJP General Secretaries Sunil Sharma, Adv Vibodh Gupta & Dr. Devinder Kumar

Manyal, BJP NEM Priya Sethi, Chief Spokesperson Adv Sunil Sethi, spokesperson RS Pathania, senior leader Devender Singh Rana and Dr. Rafiq Wani, Other members of com-

masses in its policy making and hence on the lines of Parliament elections, BJP Jammu & Kashmir will design its Assembly election manifesto in accordance with the wishes of the people of occasion announced that the party has divided the region into the 7 areas namely Jammu, Rajouri-Poonch, Doda-Ramban-Kishtwar, Udhampur-Reasi, Samba-Kathua, Kashmir and Kashmir Displaced.

He said that the teams will also be formed on the District basis to have more outreach within the society and the whole process will be completed up to 15th of August. He said that the roadmap of the BJP will be set up by this exercise thus fulfilling the party's mission of 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas'. Dr. Nirmal Singh said that the party leaders will meet with the prominent people from all the sections of the society like youth, women, economists, farmers etc, representatives of various communities like refugees, displaced, SCs, STs, OBCs, Paharis, employees etc, and all the other sections.

He said that the teams will also be formed on the District basis to have more outreach within the society and the whole process will be completed up to 15th of August. He said that the roadmap of the BJP will be set up by this exercise thus fulfilling the party's mission of 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas'. Dr. Nirmal Singh said that the party leaders will meet with the prominent people from all the sections of the society like youth, women, economists, farmers etc, representatives of various communities like refugees, displaced, SCs, STs, OBCs, Paharis, employees etc, and all the other sections.

He said that the teams will also be formed on the District basis to have more outreach within the society and the whole process will be completed up to 15th of August. He said that the roadmap of the BJP will be set up by this exercise thus fulfilling the party's mission of 'Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas'. Dr. Nirmal Singh said that the party leaders will meet with the prominent people from all the sections of the society like youth, women, economists, farmers etc, representatives of various communities like refugees, displaced, SCs, STs, OBCs, Paharis, employees etc, and all the other sections.

Principal Secy Culture releases Haya Zeeshan's maiden literary work "Caddle"

SRINAGAR, AUGUST 04 : Principal Secretary Culture, Suresh Kumar Gupta today released the book "Caddle" on the sidelines of an impressive cultural event at Tagore Hall here. Director, Libraries & Research, J&K, Mohammad Rafi, senior officers from Department of Culture and School Education Department were present on the occasion.

"Caddle" is a collection of poems written by budding writer Haya Zeeshan who is a class 10th student of International Islamic School, Humhama. Daughter of Valley's leading Gastroenterologist and Hepatologist Dr Zeeshan Ahmad Wani, Haya Zeeshan said her book is about optimism and positivity in life.

"I was always fascinated by poetry and through this book I want the readers to realize that it is OK to lose people, because that makes you feel, which people are actually right for you," Haya said and added that poetry is her friends for providing her unflinching support in her maiden endeavour as a tion of poems, but a celebration of creativity, innovation, and the power of poetry," he not just a process where you learn a few words, collect them, arrange them and put across, it is something that comes out from deep inside you. She praised her parents, her family, her teachers and writer. Suresh Kumar Gupta complimented the young writer for her work and said that it will inspire more young writers to make their debut in the literary field. "Caddle as not just a collec-

A large number of artists, writers, poets, cultural enthusiasts and people from different walks of life, who were present on the occasion, applauded Haya Zeeshan for her maiden literary initiative.

Congress, Abdullahs, Muftis misleading JK peoples on PM Modi's development agenda in J&K : Chugh

Jammu, Aug. 04 : BJP national general secretary Tarun Chugh today blasted the Congress and regional political parties for putting J&K in a crisis situation. Addressing a series of meetings in Akhnoor region, Chugh said Prime Minister Narendra Modi has envisioned a new era of peace and development for J&K. He said the Congress & regional parties of Abdullahs and Muftis have been deliberately misleading the people and have been trying to foment anti national sentiments.

Chugh said the BJP workers must prepare themselves for the coming Assembly elections. It is time to defeat anti-national forces in J-K so that every

Former Minister Rajiv

DDC Ramban & Seh Prabhari Doda Rakesh

person can enjoy the fruits of development and visionary policies of the Modi govern-

Jasrotia addressed "BJYM Sammelan" at Bani Assembly Constituency.

Thakur addressed "BJYM Sammelan" at Banihal Assembly Constituency.

Jammu & Kashmir Tops 8th Pencak Silat Federation Cup 2024 in Leh, Ladakh

SRINAGAR, AUGUST 04 : The 8th Pencak Silat Federation Cup 2024 concluded at the NDS Multipurpose Indoor Sports Stadium in Leh, Ladakh. Organized by the Ladakh Pencak Silat Association in collaboration with Youth Services & Sports, UT of Ladakh, LAHDC, and the Indian Pencak Silat Federation, the event featured 454 athletes from 18 States/UTs.

This competition marked Ladakh's first national-level martial arts event.

Drukpa Thuksey Rinpoche was the view guest for the opening ceremony. Among the Guests of Honour were Tsering Angchuk, Deputy Chairman LAHDC Leh; Mosis Kunzang, Director of Youth Services and Sports UT of Ladakh; Kishore Prakash Yewale, President of the Indian Pencak Silat Federation; and Tariq Ahmad Zargar,

Secretary General of the Indian Pencak Silat Federation, along with other Haryana and host Ladakh. The closing ceremony was graced by Chief Guest team, highlighting J&K's consistent achievements in martial arts such as Pencak officers. The dignitaries commended the efforts to promote this traditional martial art. Jammu & Kashmir athletes emerged as the top performers, securing the Overall Championship, followed by Vikram Singh Malik, who emphasized the importance of Pencak Silat in fostering discipline, fitness, and cultural exchange. Nuzhat Gull, Secretary, J&K Sports Council, congratulated the victorious Silat, Wushu, Taekwondo, Judo etc. She attributed this success to the development of sports infrastructure over the past decade and expressed gratitude to the LG administration for their special focus on sports in J&K.

Govt College of Education conduct series of activities in view of I-Day

SRINAGAR, AUGUST 04 : As part of Independence Day Celebrations Govt College of Education (IASE) organized National Anthem singing competition & other events. Students from different courses enthusiastically participated in this singing competition while songs related to the Indian freedom struggle were also sung by several students.

in-service student of B. Ed 4th semester and 3rd position was secured by Nidah Masood student of M.Ed 3rd semester.

to the Rashtrapita Mahatma Gandhi, Chandra Shekhar Azad, Bhagat Singh, Shivaram Rajguru and Sukhdev Thapar. This event served as a tribute to India's

The first position of the competition was secured by Mohammad Shafi, in-service student of B. Ed 4th semester; second position was secured by Mudasar Kaboo,

On the occasion, Principal of the college Prof. (Dr) Seema Naz, highlighted the importance of such events & also spoke about the programmes to be conducted in view of celebration of 77th National Independence Day. She thanked the participants for their enthusiastic participation & also appreciated the cultural committee of the college for organizing a series of activities.

GGM Science College organized "Discussion on Freedom Fighters"

Jammu, Aug.04 : Faculty Members and students of GGM Science College organized "Discussion on Freedom Fighters" an event to commemorate 77th Independence Day celebrations. The "Discussion on Freedom Fighters" is organized to celebrate the spirit of unity, to remember the great sacrifices of freedom fighters to encourage the community to come together as one. This initiative aligns with the college's mission to promote values of inclusivity and harmony among students and the broader public.

day, but their great sacrifices should be always remembered and a sense of respect and gratitude should be in our minds always. It also instills values such as unity, to the Rashtrapita Mahatma Gandhi, Chandra Shekhar Azad, Bhagat Singh, Shivaram Rajguru and Sukhdev Thapar. This event served as a tribute to India's coordinated by ANO's Lt. Dr. Devinder Kumar Sharma, Dr. Shafia Saleem and NSS Program Officers Dr. Neha Sharma, Dr. Rahul Kait Prof. Lekh Raj, Dr. P. S Thakur, Dr

teamwork and the feeling of national integration among us. A floral tribute was given independence Heroes and reminder of the importance of staying united as a nation. The whole event was Sunil Dutt, Dr Pankaj Gupta, Dr Jyotdeep Kour Raina, other faculty members and students.

Woman Empowerment Efforts By Lecture On Beti Bachao Beti Padhao at Mendhar Poonch

Poonch, Aug. 04 : Education is everyone's right and it is one of the most crucial areas of empowerment for women. Education contribute greatly to society's development and they can share the responsibility of men in every walk of life. Indian Army, in consonance with "Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao" initiative of the Government of India has always played a concomitant role in improving infrastructure of schools and assist to the girl students in gaining a good education. The students were inspired and their parents were extremely grateful and enthusiastic. It was evident from the dreams and ambitions voiced by the girl students during the informal interaction with Army officials during the event.

Meanwhile, Indian Army conducted a lecture on

"LECTURE ON DRUGS ABUSE" for teenagers and youth on 04 Aug 2024 at repercussions. The teenagers were made aware of the techniques of identification towards building a drug free society. The event was appreciated by the attendees Khanetar and Palma, Poonch & Rajouri District. The lecture aimed to make the teenagers and youth aware of ill effects of drugs and its and symptoms of drug addiction. They were also exposed to knowledge on illicit drug trafficking and motivated to join hands and further enhanced the nation-building image of Indian Army. A total of 220 teenagers and youth attended the event.

Mobile Medical Patrol for Gujjar and Bakarwal at Simbal and Siyal Rajouri

Rajouri, Aug. 04 : Indian Army extended healthcare services to Gujjar Bakarwals community in the remotest parts of Siyal of Rajouri district by mobile medical patrols in the border villages of Simbal and Siyal. These villages, often remain cut off from mainstream healthcare facilities due to their geographic isolation and challenging terrains. Many Villagers got benefited immensely from this initiative which contributed to the overall well-being of these communities.

provide on-the-spot medical care, including basic health check-ups, treatment of comditions. The patrols also focus on preventive healthcare by offering immunizations and disease prevention. One of the most significant aspects of these patrols is their inclusivity. Special attention is given to vulnerable sections of the population, such as children, pregnant women, and the elderly.

mon ailments, and distribution of necessary medicadisseminating information about hygiene, nutrition, and services directly to their doorsteps.

BJP Kashmir Displaced District's Tridev Sammelan Focuses on Grassroots Mobilization and Development

Jammu, Aug. 04 : The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) Kashmir Displaced District organized a Tridev Sammelan at Roop Nagar, Jammu. The event was graced by the presence of several prominent leaders, including BJP Vice-President Assem Gupta, Ex MLC Ajey Bharti, District President Chand Jee Bhat, and Vice President Chetan Wanchoo. The stage secretary for the event was General Secretary H K Razzdan, while the event commenced with the recitation of "Sharda Vandana" by General Secretary Motti Lal Bhat.

people that only the BJP government is committed to developing Jammu & Kashmir and improving the socio-economic status of every section of the population."

every household and ensuring that every voter converts their intention into an actual vote. He underscored the necessity of engaging with every voter at the grassroots level to strengthen the democratic process. In his speech, Bharti also criticized the previous governments, including the National Conference (NC), Congress, and the People's Democratic Party (PDP). He accused them of showing a step-motherly treatment towards Jammu and Kashmir, suggesting that Shreshtha Bharat." Speaking on the occasion, Chetan Wanchoo elaborated on the concept of Tridev, highlighting the trio's vital role in the party's organizational structure. Wanchoo noted that this tridev is crucial for maintaining a strong grassroots presence and plays a pivotal role in mobilizing support and translating it into votes. He stressed that the Tridev are not just representatives but also the voice and face of the party at the local level, ensuring that the BJP's Bhat said that by expressing confidence in the trio's ability to bridge the gap between the party and the people, thereby strengthening the bond of trust and cooperation.

During the program Chand Jee Bhat held a productive interaction session with Mandal Booth Yuva Morcha and Mahila Morcha Presidents. During the meeting, the Presidents shared insights into the workings of their respective units, highlighting key achievements and challenges.

Chand Jee Bhat said that the Tridev are crucial for the party's successful functioning. He praised the Modi government's social welfare initiatives, such as the Ayushman Card, which has empowered the needy population of Jammu & Kashmir. He added, "Tridev has the duty to communicate to the these parties neglected the region's needs and failed to provide equitable development and opportunities. He emphasized that with the spirit of "Sabka Saath, Sabka Vikas, Sabka Vishwas, Sabka Prayas," Jammu-Kashmir and Ladakh are now reaching new heights of progress. He added, "Today, these areas are providing more powerful and new dimensions to the spirit of 'Ek Bharat, message and initiatives resonate with every individual in the community. Vice President Anil Dhar and Chief Spokesperson and District Secretary Rahul Koul also spoke on the given topics. They reinforced the importance of effective communication and outreach by Tridev, highlighting their crucial role in the party's mission to connect with the people and serve the community.

with Mandal Booth Yuva Morcha and Mahila Morcha Presidents. During the meeting, the Presidents shared insights into the workings of their respective units, highlighting key achievements and challenges.

Bhat praised their efforts and encouraged continued dedication to strengthening grassroots organization. Ajey Bharti emphasized the importance of reaching message and initiatives resonate with every individual in the community. Vice President Anil Dhar and Chief Spokesperson and District Secretary Rahul Koul also spoke on the given topics. They reinforced the importance of effective communication and outreach by Tridev, highlighting their crucial role in the party's mission to connect with the people and serve the community.